Subject: - Rebuttal against the news “ A lethal jacket swap”.

Sir,

This refers to the news item captioned above appeared in the newspaper Mail Today, dated 22-1-2009. The contents of report have been found partially incorrect and misleading.

The news item claims that robber Kuldip @ Sonu was informer of the police and had a deal with police that he would guide them to gangster Satprakash @ Satte.

The report is strongly rebutted as the accused Kuldip @ Sonu has never been the informer of police, nor did he give any information about the gang's movement. Terming him as police informer is nothing but a figment of imagination.

I, therefore, request you to kindly publish the facts and the correct information in your newspaper with the same prominence for the benefit of your reader who may have been misled by the wrong information and advise the concerned reporter to verify the facts from the authority before reporting such sensitive matter.
