Delhi Police - A Big Salute.....!

Sonu Vandanaa Chhabra, a friend, had a tyre burst close to midnight on NH -28 she was alone called the car helpline company..... which never turned up.

Meanwhile..... two cops on Bike Patrolling..... stopped by while she was waiting for the emergency (!!) roadside assistance to arrive. Left a help and said will check back. They were back again shortly. Soon a cop car came to check. The vehicle stood guard next to her car..... While the bike cops went..... Searched and got a mechanic the tyre was replaced. She was not left alone till her car was road worthy... and she is right now on her way home in her own words, as I spoke with her a little while ago- they were amazing...!

Safety of women, yes is top on Delhi Police's agenda and it was executed here very effectively.

Kud osand a heartfelt thank you.
